

BOOST↑CHARGE™

USB-C® Power Bank 20K

A 20,000 mAh power bank provides up to an additional 20 hours* of battery life to your MacBook, up to 28 hours to your iPad, or up to 77 hours to your phone. A second USB-A port charges a second device (e.g., a smartphone) simultaneously. An included USB-C to USB-C cable allows you to start recharging your MacBook straight out of the box. The cable also recharges the power bank faster via USB-C for added convenience. A status indicator light alerts you when the power bank needs to be recharged.

Product Benefits
