ARTICONA HDMI Hybrid Cable

Article number: see table

This ARTICONA HDMI hybrid cable delivers razor-sharp images with resolutions of up to 4K over a transmission range of up to 50 metres. Thanks to innovative fibre optic technology, the cable isn't powerful and does not need an external power supply. Measuring just 4.8 mm in diameter, this cable is extremely flexible and space-saving compared to other standard cables.

Highlights:

- Hybrid cable combines the advantages of a fibre optic cable with a copper cable
- Resolutions up to 3840 × 2160 at 60 Hz
- HDMI-powered
- Metal connectors
