ARTICONA Galaxy Tab S10 Lite Keyboard Case

Article number: 4990226

The ARTICONA Galaxy Tab S10 Lite Keyboard Case transforms your tablet into a practical mobile workstation.

It combines reliable device protection with an integrated keyboard, making it ideal for both professional environments and educational use.

The keyboard with German layout enables comfortable and efficient typing for emails, documents, assignments and other daily tasks.

The durable case protects the tablet during everyday use while maintaining full access to all ports and controls.

A foldable stand allows the tablet to be positioned at a convenient viewing and typing angle, whether working at a desk, in meetings, in the classroom or while studying at home.

The case is also resistant to light water splashes, providing additional protection against small accidents that may occur during everyday use.

With its robust design and practical functionality, this keyboard case is a reliable accessory for productive tablet use in business and learning environments.
