WHY IT MATTERS FOR YOU

1. Extend coverage in line with device lifecycle

Your Yealink Video Conference devices can stay protected for up to five years—matching the natural depreciation and replacement cycle of your hardware investment.

2. Confidence that lasts

With Yealink protection, you gain the assurance that your devices remain free from defects and can be repaired or replaced whenever issues arise, securing your ROI for the long term.

3. Simplify your procurement

A single upfront payment means no repeated budget approvals for future repairs or updates, streamlining your procurement process and reducing administrative effort.

4. Minimize downtime

Fast replacement of faulty hardware helps cut device downtime and keeps your video conferencing systems running without interruption.

5. Smart protection for your investment

For just about 8% of your hardware cost per year, you unlock extended coverage that saves you from unexpected big expenses and ensures your Yealink Video Conference devices always deliver their best.
