Lenovo Laser Rechargeable Presentation Remote

All-in-one remote for impactful presentations.

The Lenovo Laser Rechargeable Presentation Remote is more than a remote—it's your gateway to commanding attention and delivering ideas with impact. Designed to adapt to any setup—projectors, TVs, video conferencing, or multi-screen environments—it empowers you to lead with confidence. The green laser and digital pointer ensure precision, while five advanced modes and customizable controls give you total creative freedom. A built-in vibration alert keeps you perfectly on schedule so every presentation ends as strongly as it begins.

Why you need the Lenovo Laser Rechargeable Presentation Remote

Point with precision

Whether you're pointing out key numbers on a chart or emphasizing a bold idea, the green laser and digital pointer make your message impossible to miss—on any screen or projector, in any room.

Command every moment

Highlight, magnify, mark, or guide with tools designed to bring your content to life. Customizable buttons and LADM app give you the power to tailor your presentation style while the countdown alert keeps your timing flawless.

Connect your way

Enjoy instant plug-and-play connectivity with the dual USB-A/USB-C receiver, or go cable-free with Bluetooth® 5.3 for total flexibility.
