

Go for more working comfort and less physical strain. ComfortRead Reading Ruler Magnifier helps with ergonomic posture when reading documents at your workplace.

Ergonomic reading for optimal productivity

Do you recognize this? You set up your workplace perfectly ergonomically, sit up straight, and then... you still have to bend over to read your documents... we can solve that. With the ComfortRead you can read the text on your screen and your text on paper from the same ergonomic position. The perfect tool for anyone who wants to work more efficiently and comfortably with paper documents in combination with a screen. Thanks to innovative technologies and scientific insights, ComfortRead takes your reading experience to a higher level and increases your productivity at work. Less eye and neck strain, more focus and smoother reading - that's working with ComfortRead!

Ergonomic background

With this innovative reading aid, you take the next step in improving productivity and working comfort. ComfortRead makes it easier to find the right line and offers exactly the right magnification at the right ratio for comfortable reading from an ergonomic position. Distortions or reflections are minimised. This makes it easy to read multiple lines so you don't have to keep aligning the page, and the significant magnification of the letters makes text easier to read when sitting upright. Because you don't have to constantly dip forward to read exactly what it says, you work in a comfortable working position and this means less strain on your neck and shoulders.
